ANTEAGE®

VAGINAL REJUVENATION

90% OF WOMEN

DO NOT SEEK HELP FOR THEIR VAGINAL ATROPHY SYMPTOMS

Vaginal dryness and pain are common, yet silent symptoms* that can affect the quality of life for women of all ages. Take your power back with AnteAGE® VRS – a hormone free, non-invasive home vaginal rejuvenation treatment.

Physiologically balanced bio-signals from stem cell cytokines reduce inflammation while hyaluronic acid increases moisture to promote a healthy, youthful micro-environment.

Symptoms may include: itching, irritation, painful intercourse, vaginal dryness, urinary leakage, and an undesirable cosmetic appearance.*

- Safe, non-invasive, and private (for use in-home)
- Efficient & easy to use
- No side effects, systemic impact, or discomfort
- Non-estrogen based and hormone free
- High patient satisfaction reported in clinical studies and patient surveys
- Safe for oncology patients and breast feeding mothers

Apply one tube every 2-3 days until box is finished. Follow with 1 tube weekly as needed.
